NEXT SUNDAY TO BE ARMENIAN DAY IN COUNTY

Churches and Sunday Schools Asked to Take Special Offering for Armenian Orphans.

Dr. J. J. Dickey, chairman for Mason county of the Near East Relief campaign, issues this communication from his bed in Hayswood Hospital:

"My Dear Fellow-Citizens: As announced in recent issues of the city papers we asked all the churches and Sunday school in the county to take collections next Sunday, December 19, for the relief of the 3,500,000 Armenian orphans.

"Already $800 has been contributed, which is one third of Mason county's quota, encouraging reports come from every direction, and we are confidently expecting to raise the full amount, $2,500. We hope every body will go to church next Sunday and take check book with him.

"The cry of these orphans is filling the land. The latest news is that they have provisions for only one month, and unless the people of the United States come promptly to the rescue hunger and cold will claim their victims by the thousands. It seems incredible that any human heart familiar with these facts could go unmoved.

"Remember that the homes of these children have been destroyed, and they are gathered into improvised orphanages and are being cared for by hundreds of noble American men and women who are fathering and mothering them the best they can. Helpless orphans in such numbers never before appealed to the civilized world. We cannot but feel that the noble people of this great, wealthy county will respond to this call and save the remnant of this, the first nation of the world to receive the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Most of the amounts received have been in checks from $10 to $100, and there are hundreds of others who might do likewise, and we trust they will. But there are yet other hundreds who can give smaller amounts. There are wage earners, salaried men, clerks, agents, mechanics, laborers.

WOMAN TO SPEAK AT REVIVAL THURSDAY

Woman Centenary Worker Will Visit City Thursday—Revival Grows In Interest.

"Repentance" was the theme for a masterly discourse by Rev. Overley at the revival at the Third Street M. E. Church last evening. He used as a basis for his sermon the preaching of John the Baptist, emphasizing the need of just such preaching in these times.

Services again this evening at 7 o'clock. Come early, you will enjoy the song service.

On Thursday evening the church will be favored with the presence of Mrs. F. I. Johnson, of Columbus, O., who will give a short address during the service. Mrs. Johnson is the wife of Dr. F. I. Johnson, one of the very leading men of the great Methodist Centenary movement. It will be a great treat to meet and hear a woman of Mrs. Johnson's ability. Her part in the service will not detract one whit from the evangelistic part as Rev. Overley will preach just the same. The church is anxious that the women, and men, too, of the other churches hear Mrs. Johnson and a most gracious invitation is given every one to attend.

We have beautiful cut glass tumblers, $6.00 per set of six. Cut glass water pitchers from $6.00 up. Cut glass bowls from $3.00 up. Nappies from $2.00 up. Water goblets, in fact anything you want in cut glass. Murphy the Jeweler, Open evenings. 17tf

Would it not be a beautiful thing for these to give the price of one day's labor to help save the lives of these millions? If these were your children or your brothers and sisters, would you not think so? Don't turn a deaf ear to the cry of starving orphans.

"We certainly appreciate the generosity of the First Presbyterian church and Sunday school, who on last Sunday week contributed $177 and have since increased it to $227, also that of the First M. E. Church, South, which last Sunday reported $254, and the Hebron Methodist Sunday school in the county 35; and the Hilldale school $12.

"Where circumstances prohibit collections being taken next Sunday let them be taken later. Let no church or Sunday school fail to respond. Make checks payable and send to W. W. Ball, Jr., of the writer. If cash payment is most practicable take pledges and collect later. J. J. DICKEY, "County Chairman."

SCHOOL HEAD IN A STATEMENT ON MOVING PICTURES

Superintendent W. J. Caplinger Outlines Plan to Procure Moving Picture Outfit for High School.

Prof. W. J. Caplinger, superintendent of the City Schools has just issued this statement:

A drive is being put on this evening to equip our city school for visual education. The Maysville schools have been in the fore-front of all of the approved forms of instruction, consequently our next step is to provide for visual instruction by installing a motion picture outfit in the auditorium of the High School building. We propose to do this by putting in the very latest Power's machine which is considered the best machine made in the United States.

The schools through the students and teachers are going to raise the money for the purchase of the machine and then ask the Board to install it, furnish shades, etc.

In a recent journal, I saw the statement that forty of the Philadelphia city school buildings are now operating moving pictures for the instruction of the children.

The University of Kentucky, Department of Interior and various educational agencies have educational films that we may get by merely paying the transportation charges, especially in this form of instruction valuable in geography history and science work. In fact, the movies are great time savers in teaching subject matter of this kind.

The plan for raising the money is this:

The Curtis Publishing Company has made a proposition that if we can secure 1,000 subscriptions for The Country Gentleman at $1.00 each, $500 of this amount is to be left with the schools for the above mentioned purpose. The Country Gentleman is a weekly magazine, well known to the reading public as one of the best magazines of its kind published. It contains a lot of general information concerning agricultural subjects, also some continued stories by the leading story writers, such as Zane Grey and Charles Payson Terhune, famous for stories on dog life, and other leading present day writers.

Any one subscribing for this paper will get value received and in addition will contribute 50 cents of the amount toward making the Maysville schools the most modern and up-to-date in the state.

I asked three men this afternoon, if they wouldn't take five subscriptions and send them to some of their friends, not a one of them turned me down. Why? Because he knew it was the best moderate-priced Christmas present he could give and he could also be of constructive service to the children of the city of Maysville.

A system of prizes has been worked out which has been announced to the children. When they come to see you, take anywhere from one to ten subscriptions and by so doing, accomplish these three things:

- (a) Solve your question of what is the most appropriate gift to your friends.
- (b) Help make Maysville schools right up to the minute.
- (c) Help the child to win a valuable prize for getting the greatest number of subscribers.

This offer of the Curtis Publishing Company is unique in this respect, that it, should we not take but 100 subscriptions, $50 of it is left with the school. This campaign will close on or before Thursday, the 23rd. We have never asked for an educational need in Maysville that has not been granted. Please do not disappoint us this time. Yours respectfully,

W. J. CAPLINGER.

TRIAL OF ALLEGED SLAYER OF SHINE INFORMANT STARTS

Five Men Go On Trial for the Alleged Murder of Girl Who Told on Moonshiners.

Booneville, Ky., Dec. 14. — Miss Rachel Allen, 21 years old, was forced at the point of a pistol to leave her home by six men, taken to a lonely spot and murdered because she had exposed moonshiner operations, according to evidence at the trial of Charley Gabbard, first of five under arrest charged with her murder.

The case has been on trial several days and will reach the jury tomorrow. Arguments were heard tonight.

The girl who lives on Buffalo Creek with a widow, was murdered at midnight of June 3. Five of the six men said to have appeared at the house were arrested and were taken to Lexington for safekeeping.

The five men admit they forced the girl to leave home, but claim the actual shot was fired by Robert Sandlin, who escaped and has never been caught.

The men were returned here for trial last week after having been in the Lexington jail for safekeeping. The four others who will be tried in March are Grover Gabbard, Leonard Baker, Harlan Baker and Rogers Clark.

SMALLPOX FOUND ON FLEMINGSBURG STREET.

The Flemingsburg Gazette says: "Hord Schoolfield, colored, with some eruption on his face and arms met Dr. Robertson on the street yesterday and casually asked what was the matter. Dr. viewed him at arm's length and calling Dr. Brice found Schoolfield developing a case of smallpox. He was ordered to go home at once and has been placed under quarantine. He came here from Middletown, Ohio, last Thursday and evidently contracted the disease there. With the prompt quarantine and the vaccination measures taken by the authorities, there is little likelihood of any spread of the disease."

If your boy could tell you why it is that some pianos sound better than others; why it is that a violin produces a musical note; what sound is; how it is produced and a host of other interesting things, wouldn't you be proud of him? Perry Hill Found on Ohio Farm Shot Through Heart

FORMER MASON COUNTY MAN WHO COULD NOT BE LOCATED LAST NIGHT, WAS FOUND THIS MORNING.

Mr. Perry Hill, who until last March resided on a farm in the Moransburg neighborhood, was found dead on his farm a few miles outside of Ripley, Ohio, this morning at about 8 o'clock with a gunshot wound through the heart and a shot gun lying by his side.

Mr. Hill left his home Tuesday morning at about 7:30 o'clock to walk across the fields to another farm he owned and carried with him a single barrel shot gun with which he had been in habit of killing rabbits while walking from one farm to another. He failed to return to his home at a proper time last night and his wife became uneasy and started an investigation. She soon learned that he had not reached his other farm on Tuesday morning and a general alarm was given.

Neighbors searched from 8 o'clock last night until 1 o'clock this morning but failed to find the missing man or any trace of him. At daylight this morning the search was again taken up and at about 8 o'clock this morning his body was found lying near a fence in a hollow and near at hand was his single barrel shot gun with the load discharged. His heart had been punctured by the shot.

The coroner of Brown county this afternoon is holding an inquest into the death at Ripley. The general opinion seems to be that the fatality was caused by an accident while the officials are also carefully investigating the possibility of suicide or murder. There is little belief that there was murder as there has been no grounds brought to light. Mr. Hill is said to have had some little business worries and was not entirely satisfied with his property holdings in Brown county, although the officials do not believe these would have been sufficient to have caused him to suicide. The conclusion of the Coroner's inquest is not as yet known.

Mr. Hill was 37 years of age and a most industrious and prosperous young farmer. He had owned several farms in this neighborhood. He is survived by his wife and two small children.

AGED CITIZEN DIES.

Mr. Perry Rudy, aged 76 years, died early Tuesday evening at the home of his sister, Miss Theodocia Rudy, in West Second street. Mr. Rudy has been an invalid for nearly forty years having suffered from "white swelling" when employed on steamboats in the days of much steamboat traffic on the Ohio. Since that time he has operated a little grocery store in West Second street until recently. The funeral will be from the home of his sister Thursday afternoon and burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.

CROP IS RECORD BREAKER, BUT PRICE IS MUCH LOWER

Yield of Farms in Nation Is One of the Greatest in History But Value Declines.

Washington, Dec. 14. — Shrinkage of values of the country's farm crops has placed their total worth this year at almost $5,000,000,000 less than last year, although the 1920 harvest was one of the most abundant in the nation's history with half a dozen crops breaking records.

The important crops which comprise about 90 per cent. of the value of all farm crops, were valued this year at $9,148,519,000 by the Department of Agriculture today in its final estimate. Last year these crops were valued at $14,087,995,000. Acreage devoted to the important crops also decreased, the total being 351,062,409 this year, as compared with 356,162,122 last year.

"The final outcome of the 1920 wheat harvest winter and spring combined, is estimated at 789,878,000 bushels, compared with 934,265,000 bushels in 1919, this being an increase over the earlier estimates for 1920 of 39,230,000 bushels.

The 1920 acreage abandoned from winter killing, was less than expected, and indicated by the unpromising conditions May 1, and the increasingly favorable character of the later season permitted much wheat then considered hopeless to develop and come to harvest.

The reports of increase over earlier expectations of winter wheat produced come from almost every important winter wheat state with the greatest gain, 13,000,000, being in Kansas.

Notwithstanding the early unfavorable conditions for farm work, the effort of the farmers to seed their fields fully assisted by favoring days that came late in the planting period, resulted in plantings greater than expected, the report says.

Increases in almost every crop were reported in the revised production figures, as compared with the preliminary figures.

OUR POLIOY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

THEY WANT AMERICA TO SPEAK.

As an evidence of good faith in leaguering themselves astensibly for world peace, our former allies are actually discussing the proposal for international disarmament. They have asked Uncle Sam to have a word, but Uncle Sam's spokesman for the time being declines on the ground that we are not a member of the European International Club. That seemed to be final, as this spokesman for the time being declines to consult no one in his position, and concludes all questions by personal fiat regardless. But not so. Uncle Sam's committee of international courtesy, sometimes asked to satisfy or revise replies, suggests revision right now.

In short, the Senate of the United States may suggest that the President of the United States rescind his declination and send a representative to talk disarmament with the allies.

Just where this will get us is conjectural, but it is interesting to know that we are on our way. It would be a perfectly proper procedure for American and European powers, and Japan, to talk over terms of disarmament, league or no league. It is a matter these will have to determine ultimately if it is ever to be determined. Nothing can be done officially without America. They all know we are willing, but they also know we are arming heavily. Japan, at least, wants our word along with hers.

But practical politics is a game many can play at and that can be used for the winning of stakes other than popular benefit. Also it sometimes happens that what one class deems good for society another deems bad, and both are honest in these estimates. Again, reforms, real or imaginary, at times involve the interest of some division of society in its social aspects or scientific reaction. Thus are there many ways by which opposition may come to good causes and come not with evil intent or from evil source. Something of that situation is discoverable in the matter of this bill for the protection of mothers by the simple plan of instruction and contributory care in need.

The women, singly and in clubs, in divisions social, sectarian and racial, all in homogeneous combination, are massed behind this measure for the protection of motherhood and the conservation of babyhood. It is a formidable army in array with banners flying. Mobilized upon Congress, it would seem to compel conquest. Not so much because it is an army of women as because it is an army of women voters. But even so, to paraphrase the words of the old song, "Sure they must fight if they would win," for the medicos and other wise men are also arrayed and more or less in ambush against them.

LONG NEGLECT DOESN'T FOSTER QUICK ACTION.

The American Congress is not the first to find that the shutting down of the water gates in the face of an incoming flood is a difficult job. Long ago there was outcry of warning as those with far vision taking a look over the course of ships that go down to the seas, discerned danger. But Congress was busy, heedless and unbelieving. That was a time to take the stitch to save nine. Well, it didn't happen, and the herd is running amuck at Ellis Island debouching on American soil and sweeping its way inland, and nobody to say nay. Then goes up the shout to shut the gates down quick and tight, and the promise is well. But they don't.

The truth is we can not do in a day what we have neglected to do in months. Immigration as now constituted is a menace to American citizenship and American institutions in many ways. It is coming in floods, and, naturally, as is usual with floods, is bringing dirt and debris by the quantity. It ought to be checked and of necessity must be. Then it should be regulated by some cleansing process working from the other side that will furnish complete sanitation, sociological as well as healthful. Perhaps to stop it dead would be best for a time. It is that which has just failed. At that we recall that it may be best in the long run as it were to take what we can get until we can arrange opportunity for getting more. By making terms with those who contend that to shut all out is unwise discrimination against the good, secure legislation for permanent exclusion of all the evil by more deliberate action.

WOMEN'S INITIAL TEST OF POLITICAL POWER.

The power of the ballot bids fair to get a convincing demonstration in the matter of a piece of legislation that has long been desired by the women of the country. The so-called Shepard-Towner bill for a co-operative arrangement between the States and Federal Government for instruction in maternity and home hygiene has been pending for passage in Congress for quite a while. There is no politics involved in a partisan sense, as it the production in the form offered of a Democrat in the Senate and a Republican in the House. Yet for some reason, and in deference to some interest, there has been sufficient invisible force in the background to keep it in committee.

Now it is declared that sentiment is surging over to the other side, and the signs of the time are for a speedy consideration of the bill and the certainty of its passage practically as drawn. The reason for this change of sentiment among federal legislators is not far to seek. Just a backward glance to November will indicate its location. By virtue of the Nineteenth Amendment's provisions the women did much of the work at that election. And they did it in a way that made plain to mere man that they knew what they want, how to vote for it, and where to place the blame if they don't get it. That's practical politics. It is legitimate use of power in behalf of public good.

PUNISHING THE INDEPENDENTS.

One of the leaders of the Harding Democratic Club has been suspended by his local labor union because of his activities during the campaign. Evidently the union hopes to put the fear of Gompers in his heart.

READY WITH ANSWER.

"Steaks and joints to suit all pockets." So declared the printed notice in the window. The hungry tramp passing by observed it greedily. Then bracing himself for the coming ordeal he entered the shop.

"Well, sir," said the salesman, coming forward, "and what can I do for you?"

The knight of the road pondered for a moment, then remarked:

"Look 'ere, guv'nor, you say you've got joints to suit all pockets. Well, what about a champ with an empty pocket? What have you got for him?"

The salesman smiled.

"I'm afraid we can only offer him the cold shoulder," he answered.

Louisville Ky., December 14.—When the Kentucky State fair opens here September 11, it is expected that a new exposition building will have been completed at a cost of $300,000, according to announcement of Carney Cross, secretary. Additions to the premium list will total approximately $10,000, according to Mr. Cross, who has just closed a contract for the fair's amusement concessions. The fair will close September 17.

MUCH COAL BY "WAYES."

Practical value of Ohio River improvements to citizens of the lower Ohio is indicated in the report of Colonel W. W. Harts, U. S. division engineer, upon fuel movements this fall. During the low water season six artificial waves brought 220,815 tons of coal to the Cincinnati market, where it sold from $2 to $8 a ton cheaper than coal sold in cities removed from the river, Colonel Harts said.

Buy in Maysville. It pays.

An Appeal

To the Republicans of the Country and All Those Who Aided Them:

The Republican success in the 1920 election has been commensurate with the quality of our candidates and the righteousness of our cause.

This success is the partnership accomplishment of all Republicans everywhere and of hundreds of thousands of well-wishers of good government regardless of past party affiliations.

To all of these we now appeal, because it is the mutual responsibility of us all who will share alike in the consequent mutual benefit of good government.

The plan of limiting campaign contributions to $1,000, adopted by your national organization, has left your party unmortgaged.

It has been a most advanced step in placing the business of politics on the highest plane, and has brought an interest on the part of thousands who never before have been concerned with politics.

Some weeks before election it was apparent that the expenses provided for in our budget, with the strictest economy, would exceed the contributions, but we were unwilling either to leave undone any legitimate effort essential to complete success or to change the method of raising money. We were then sure and we are now sure that every Republican desires that the expenses of the campaign be distributed in this manner.

Your presidential campaign this year cost no more than that of 1916, when a dollar went nearly twice as far as it does today.

Four years ago the bulk of the campaign fund came from 750 contributors, while this year the approximately $2,000,000 contributed to date for the presidential election has come from 50,000 givers.

The victory won, the raising of the deficit would be easy, indeed, if your committee were willing to abandon the policy of keeping down the average of contribution. This we are determined not to do. It was a fight of all the people. The result speaks for itself. It lifted a burden from the minds of millions and points the way to better and happier days. We ask now for that additional help from all which is merited both by the successful conclusion of the effort and by the consequent contribution to the welfare of all of our people and the glory of the nation.

Let us now have help from every American who is grateful for the victory and all that it means to the country. It might well be in the nature of a thanksgiving offering for the return to a certainly safe, sane, constitutional progressive government.

Let us by general and generous giving put the seal of approval upon the policy of putting a national administration in power free from any possible embarrassment of special obligation to any man, men or group of men. Let us make the contribution, whether large or small, and whether or not we have heretofore given, commensurate with our means and our appreciation, always within the maximum limit heretofore fixed.

Let us get our names on the cornerstone of a sturdier political structure, upon the roll of those who have helped make possible a campaign of which, in methods and result, we may as Republicans and patriots be justly proud. Most earnestly we urge that this aid be given quickly, that your committee may be enabled to discharge the party's obligations and turn to further constructive work in behalf of party and country.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE,
Will H. Hays, Chairman.

ROYAL PERSON WELL GARBED.

Gentlemen of fashion today are mere paupers when it comes to attire, as compared to what King Augustus III. of Poland deemed necessary to his comfort. He filled two great halls with clothes and had a special watch, snuff box, sword and cane for every one of his hundred of suits. To go with them he also had 1,500 wigs. Five artists were kept busy painting miniatures of the clothing and keeping these paintings in a catalogue that the King might select from each day as he rose.

He took the lovely countess of Cozelle as his wife, and the mere fact that she had a husband already mattered little. He appeared at her door one day with a horseshoe in one hand and a bag of 100,000 crowns in the other. The gold he tossed at her feet to demonstrate his wealth and generous instincts, and the horseshoe he broke with his bare hands to demonstrate his strength and determination. The lady, impressed, got rid of her husband at once, obtaining a divorce of the sort that allowed of remarriage. Suspicious historians have hinted that the horseshoe might have been filed a bit before the kingly hand tore it apart.

Progress and Efficiency

We are anxious for the business and accounts of all, but we do not want you to think of us simply as a place to deposit your money. It is our aim to give to our customers the most correct, helpful, prompt, progressive, efficient and up-to-date service possible.

The leading Banks of the country have adopted the plan of supplying their customers with statements and this new plan seems to be working much more satisfactorily than the old system. Under the old system, a customer must leave his book to be balanced, which requires time and makes it impossible to immediately re-deliver it to them. Under the new system there will be waiting until tomorrow or next week before getting a full statement of your account. It, together with all your cancelled checks, will be ready for you any time you call. This means an additional convenience and saving of time to you.

We will continue to issue pass books to all depositors and keep the accounts of those who wish same in the old way, our sole object being to serve our customers to their best interests and in the way they wish us to.

New York Letter

By Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — If Justice Franklin Hoyt of New York Children's Court ever writes another story of thrills and adventure, its hero is going to be an elderly gentleman of eighty summers. Eliot Michener, 14-year-old office boy was brought before him the other day for having appropriated $3,600 of the payroll of the Baldwin Locomotive Company, of Philadelphia, with which to embark upon a career. He told the judge frankly just how he had started and what he had planned. The judge grew a bit restless as the story progressed. Finally when Eliot explained how he had wheedled the clerk of the Pennsylvania hotel into giving him one of the best rooms with the story that he was the son of a wealthy San Francisco woman who was due to reach here from Europe in a day or two, Judge Hoyt exclaimed, "Why I wrote this whole story myself three months ago. It was called 'In Quest of Change and Adventure' and was published in the October Scribner's." The judge refused to give the boy over to the Philadelphia detectives and instructed that he be delivered to his mother. But he's through writing stories that can be staged by live boys.

She really looked as though she knew furs. Those she was wearing were so beautiful. Nevertheless the clerk in a Fifth Avenue shop thought maybe it was his duty as an honest salesman to warn her when she was just about to buy a new scarf. "That is only imitation ermine," he said. "You must be careful not to wear it in the rain." She looked startled and also distressed. "Why what," she exclaimed, "what do the little imitation ermines do when it rains?"

It takes health and the right kind of that much abused quality of temperament to appear nearly a year and a half in a lead part on Broadway—or anywhere else—without missing one single performance. That's the record of Ina Claire, who celebrated her 500th appearance in "The Gold Diggers" last week. It would be interesting, considering the assumed "triviality" of the stage, to know how many stenographers—and manufacturers—in the city has an equal business record.

Unfortunately a similar sense of responsibility does not hold all of the theatrical profession. "Ginger," the talented dog-actor of "Daddy Dimples" up and quit the other day; just plain ran away on a vacation and left the company flat. Rewards have so far been unsuccessful in bringing back Ginger, who is described as "part French poodle, part some kind of terrier, and part something else."

Gabriel D'Annunzio has finally died; on the 415th day of his hunger strike. For 415 days he had steadily refused all the tempting tidbits offered him. Gabriel, it happens, is an alligator. But even alligators have feelings; and when Signor Mignon brought him from Virginia to grace a tank in his Italian restaurant here where he so rarely heard proper Virginia spoken, Gabriel resented it after the modern method. And now he's dead.

"We made him what he is today and now he's turned us down!" That's the wall of womankind against Sidney M. Colgate, perfume manufacturer, of Orange, N. J., who has just resigned from the Orange Board of Education after the appointment of a woman as a member of the board. "Who made him his gold?" cry all of her sisters of Greater New York. "Who but us? Suppose there never had been any women, we ask you, what would have become of a perfume maker? Talk about a serpent's tooth!"

When a California visitor now begins to talk about that favorite topic—the California climate, New York city now retaliates by talking about cats. It's all very well to tell him human beings flourish under the Pacific sunshine and rain. Humans can flourish anywhere. But it's on Manhattan Island that the toms and tabbies are sleekest and fattest and cheeriest, even those of the streets. And—yes, "it's the climate." Cat fanciers have just given this declaration to the waiting world. Persians, angoras, and plain yaller ones all thrive here and the fact that less than one-third of them have homes makes no difference.

"Bead signatures" is the new way of identifying babies at the Brooklyn and Long Island College Hospitals. It always made so much confusion if there was suspicion of the children having been mixed up! So now the first thing assigned to a new baby is a string of beads upon which the child's name is worked out. This is not removed until the mother has taken the baby from the hospital.

IT WAS A DEEP SHAFT.

Two mining engineers were discussing deep mine shafts and on had told in glowing terms about mines in which he had worked.

"Jump into my car and I'll show you a regular mine," said the other.

Arriving at the mine they saw the hoisting engine revolving at a terrific rate. The engine man was asleep. Rushing to the sleeping man they cried:

"Wake up, man! You'll pull the cage through the roof!"

"What day is this?" the engine man asked sleepily.

"It's Tuesday, but stop that engine quick."

"Ah, gwan," he replied, disgustedly, settling himself back in his chair.

"She won't be up till Friday." — Science and Invention.

"Motherhood insurance," which has been in successful operation for some years in the Scandinavian countries, is about to be given its first practical trial in the United States by the American Woolen Company, whose plan will assure every prospective mother in its employ four weeks' benefits without any cost to her.

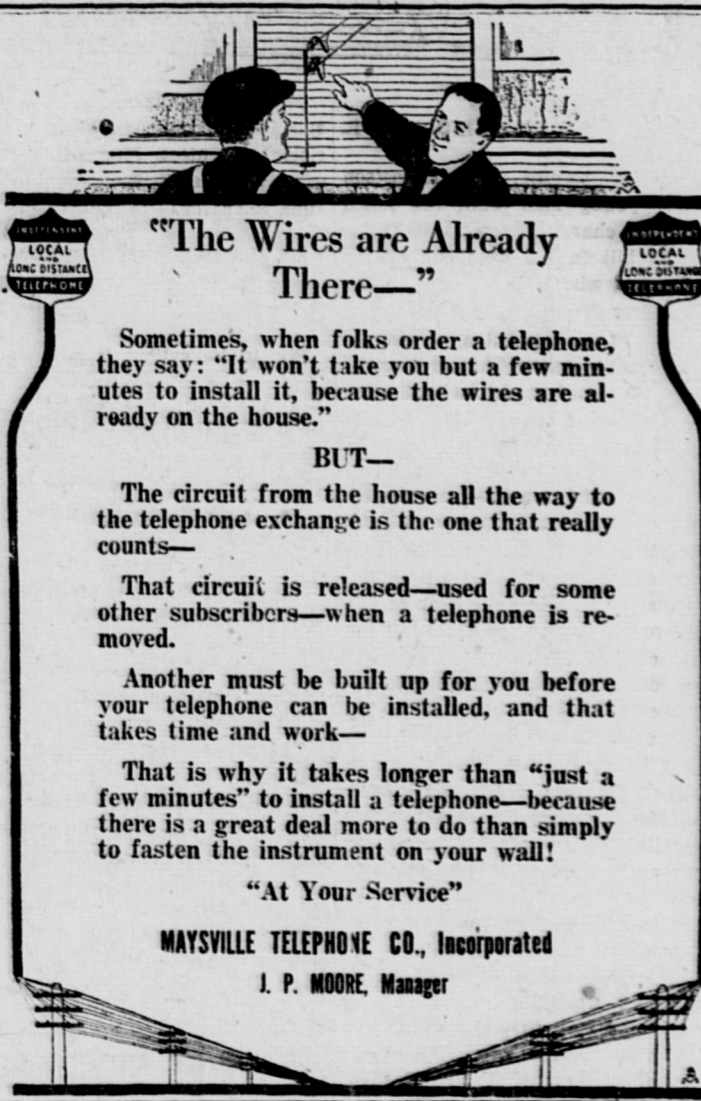

It is just fifty years since the University of Michigan voted to admit women students to all departments, being one of the first prominent American colleges to take such action.

A VOTER AT 108.

Returns continue to come in on the National Republic's "oldest woman Republican" contest. When a Republican woman aged 103 was discovered, it was thought that this ended the competition. But two older Republican women voters are reported to the National Republican this week—one aged 111 years, living in the Ozarks, concerning whom the National Republican soon hopes to print a longer story. Next in age, undoubtedly, is Mrs. Nancy H. Somers of New Castle township, Wilkes county, North Carolina, who will be 108 years old on January 8, 1921. Her maiden name was Nancy Eldridge. She was born in Yadkin county, January 6, 1813. She was married to Amos Sommers in 1837. She is in splendid health. —National Republican.

"The Wires are Already There—"

Sometimes, when folks order a telephone, they say: "It won't take you but a few minutes to install it, because the wires are already on the house."

BUT—

The circuit from the house all the way to the telephone exchange is the one that really counts—

That circuit is released—used for some other subscribers—when a telephone is removed.

Another must be built up for you before your telephone can be installed, and that takes time and work—

That is why it takes longer than "just a few minutes" to install a telephone—because there is a great deal more to do than simply to fasten the instrument on your wall!

LINCOLN'S HOME IS RESTORED.

Restoration of the village of New Salem where Abraham Lincoln worked as a grocery clerk, fell in love with Ann Rutledge, carried the postoffice in his hat and whipped the champion of the "Clary's Grove Boys," will be completed by next spring, and, with the addition of the Old Salem Museum, will be thrown open as the Old Salem State Park, according to announcement of state architect Edward Martin. Log huts as they were in Lincoln's day have been rebuilt. Atmosphere of 1831 to 1837 insofar as possible is re-embodied. The store where Lincoln was clerk the mill on Sangamon River and all other structures of New Salem so rich in memories of the great American, have been completely restored and lack only the finishing touches.

A THOROUGH TEST

One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

NO TROUBLE SINCE
Nearly thirteen years later, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

FAKE INVENTOR IN JAIL.

A formula designed to "revolutionize" the motor fuel industry by mixing corn stalks, cane sugar and yeast as a substitute for gasoline worked because the inventor, Prof. P. John Chasler of Brooklyn, N. Y., had two barrels of alcohol hidden behind the wall and connected by a pipe to a tank containing the apparatus.

Chasler's arrest followed an investigation by the District Attorney's office of a complaint of a delegation representing 200 persons from the East Side, who said they had invested in stock in the company said to have been formed for the manufacture of the stitute motor fuel.

CROP IS RECORD BREAKER

nary estimate announced in November. Corn, with a record crop, shows an increase of about 33,000,000 bushels; winter wheat an increase of almost 48,000,000 bushels; spring wheat a decrease of 9,000,000 bushels; oats an increase of almost 70,000,000 bushels; barley increased almost 11,000,000 bushels; potatoes increased 9,000,000 bushels, and tobacco increased 32,000,000 pounds.

The yield of corn per acre set a record with an average production of 30.9 bushels. Only once before has it exceeded 30 bushels, that was in 1906 when 30.3 bushels was made.

While the corn crop is a record one, its value this year is $1,662,000,000 less than last year's crop, which was smaller by 374,000,000 bushels. The price, being paid to farmers for corn December 1 was announced as 67.7 cents a bushel as compared with $1.349 a year ago.

$30 AND THIRTY DAYS

FOR STRIKING JAILER.

Robert Browning, the Robertson county young man who was jailed here on a charge of shooting with intent to kill in the west end of the county and who later assaulted Jailer Ollie Fizer in attempting to get out of jail, was brought out for a hearing before Judge Fulton Thursday morning in the presence of a large number of witnesses and spectators. On motion of the county attorney the trial of the charge for shooting to kill was postponed until January 14th on account of absent witnesses. The prisoner pleaded guilty to assaulting the jailer and was fined $30 and given 30 days in jail. He went back to jail to serve his sentence and to await his next hearing. Browning it seems has been somewhat of a "bad man" in his neighborhood and armed with a big pistol attempted to regulate matters to suit himself also evaded draft service during the war. He is said to have fired his pistol into the church which was filled with people, but luckily no one was hit. He was quite meek in court, however, and will likely be more so before he is out of his present trouble. — Fleming Gazette.

DEMPSEY KNOCKS
BRENNAN OUT IN TWELFTH.

Ringside, Madison Square Garden, New York, Dec. 14. — Dempsey knocked out Brennan in twelve rounds here tonight. Brennan entered the ring at 10:28, his green trunks peeping out from under a crimson sweater. Dempsey came through the ropes in Brennan's corner a moment later. The champion stopped for a moment to shake hands with his challenger and then each of them examined the bandages on the other's hands. Dempsey wore white trunks topped with a red, white and blue belt, and only wore a towel over his shoulders. Announcer Humphreys introduced Dempsey as the hardest-hitting heavyweight champion ever known. Brennan was introduced as from Chicago and the most popular heavy weight in the Middle West. The weights were — Dempsey 188, Brennan 197.

UNUSUAL CONDITION

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I . . . began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed. . . .

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui . . . so I told him he might get it.

"After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time.

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."

The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women.

Cardui is purely vegetable, and mild and gentle in its action. Cardui may be the very medicine you need if suffering with womanly troubles.
